POWERS SIGNATURE RELEASE

€8.50

Blended Irish Whiskey

Nose: Opens with the undeniable aromatics of traditional pot still Irish whiskey triple distillation in copper pot stills. Years of maturation in top grade oak casks produce the fresh herbal notes of garden mint and bergamot balanced with more robust spicy touches of nutmeg, fig and black pepper corncobs. The sweet vanilla notes are laid upon a background of charred American oak and the subtle use of ex-Oloroso sherry butts from Iberian oak brings some succulent berry fruits to the mix.

Taste: The initial mouth coating, typical of single pot still Irish whiskey, is succulently sweet with vanilla and leads into the warming flavours of the charred oak casks. Hints of black licorice and cinnamon slowly allow some fruit to appear - melons, green apples and pears. Then, as the richness subsides, there is a crisp faintly acknowledgement of the barley.

Finish: Long and wonderfully complex. An unhurried journey through an impressive flavour spectrum.
